Fast Action Battles: Golan

EXTENDED SEQUENCE OF PLAY

Start of Turn Phase

Reinforcement Phase – Both Players

- If the reusable Special Action was not used, move one asset directly from Used Box to Available Box (4.1a)
- Otherwise move the reusable Special Action from Used Box to Available Box (4.1a)
- Syrian Player: Reduction of SAM Barrier (16.12) – may affect one SAM asset
- Move all remaining assets from Used Box into selection cup (4.1b)

Arriving Resources

- Units placed in entry areas (4.1c & 8.27 & 14.21 & 14.22)
- Assets and Events placed into selection cup (4.1d)

First Player Turn

Admin Phase – Both Players

- Both players randomly draw a number of assets/events from selection cup as indicated on the Turn Track (4.2a)
- Phasing Player first then Non-phasing Player:
  - Perform engineering functions (4.2 & 4.3)
  - Play and resolve events (4.2 & 17.0)
  - Play and resolve commando raid assets (16.11)
  - Play and resolve SAM air defense fire assets (16.12)
  - Play and resolve air support assets (16.31)
  - Perform staff functions (4.2 & 8.3)
  - Use Special Actions (8.25 & 8.26)

Operational Movement Phase – Phasing Player

Movement Action

- Place units in reserve, move, build field works, or hold position (5.21, 5.22, 5.23 & 5.24); Night – movement restricted (14.03)

River Assaults & Crossing Assaults

- Mark as appropriate (5.35e & 14.01a)

Overstacking (involuntary only)

- Correct at end of Phase by retreating units (5.1 & 6.6)

Strategic Movement Phase – Phasing Player

Reserve Move

- Move units marked with a reserve marker per Strategic Movement Rules; Night – strat-move restricted (14.03)
- Remove reserve marker from units so moved (5.4)

Combat Phase – For each area as required or desired, conducting Air Assault (15.3) before all other combats; Night – no Air Assaults and no use of air assets (14.03)

Special Action Decision

- Defender may reinforce or retreat with Special Action (6.21)

Commit Assets

- Attacker assigns assets to this battle (6.22)
- Defender assigns assets to this battle (6.23)

Declare Point

- Both declare point unit (Defender first) (6.24)

Reveal Units

- Both reveal units if a newly contested area (6.24)

Artillery Fire

- Attacking artillery fires (6.25) – Defender applies hits (6.42)
- Defending artillery fires (6.26) – Attacker applies hits (6.41)

Ground Fire

- Ground units and battle assets fire in the following order:
  - Defender fires (6.27) – Attacker applies hits (6.41)
  - Attacker fires (unless attack aborted) (6.28) – Defender applies hits (6.42)
- Both place remaining assets from this combat in Used Box (6.29)

Reaction & Breakthrough Phase – Both Players

Reaction

- Non-phasing Player moves reserves (7.2)

Breakthrough Movement

- Phasing Player moves these units in any desired order:
  - Units in reserve (7.3)
  - Exploitation units, but only into adjacent areas (7.3 & 7.31)
  - Armor Class units, by spending a Special Action for each unit, but only into adjacent areas (7.3 & 7.31 & 8.21)

Breakthrough Combat

- Combats caused by Breakthrough Movement are resolved as in the regular Combat Phase, with a limit of one combat round per area (7.4)

Supply Phase – Both Players

Control of Areas

- Both players verify control of areas (9.2)

Supply

- Players check supply status of all units (9.31, 14.93 & 14.94), and place/remove unsupplied markers (9.31 & 9.32)

Disorder & Recovery

- Players remove recovering markers from all units and then flip disordered markers to the recovering side (9.35)

Morale Check – Phasing Player Only

- Phasing Player makes morale checks for his unsupplied units (9.4)

Marker Removal

- Players remove all markers as follows (9.5):
  - All reserve markers from Non-phasing Player units
  - All field works markers from contested areas
  - All road blocks and defended road blocks
  - All river assault markers

Second Player Turn

- Second Player becomes Phasing Player/Attacker
- First Player becomes Non-phasing Player/Defender
- Repeat the Phases outlined for the First Player Turn above

Victory Check Phase

- Determine and mark Current Victory Point Level (19.3)
- Check for Sudden Death Victory (19.4)

Game Turn Advancement

- If no Sudden Death Victory, advance turn marker to the next game turn

© 2016 GMT Games LLC
P.O. Box 1308, Hanford, CA 93232
www.GMTGames.com