HIT PRIORITIES

First unit Step Loss must be from the Point Unit!

vs Attacker	vs Defender
1: First Hit ☒ mandatory Step Loss against an asset or the Point Unit	1: First Hit ☑ removes field works (if present)
2a: Attacker Chooses to "Abort Attack" ☑ ☑ all units become disordered; no further losses	2a: Avoid 1 Hit of Arty Fire ☑ only if at least one unit is good order or recovering then all units become disordered
2b: Attacker Chooses to "Continue Attack" ☒ ☒ all remaining hits are Step Losses [assets and/or units]	2b: Avoid 1 Hit of Ground Fire ☑ first all units retreat then good order & recovering units become disorderd
☒ = Absorb or Avoid ☑ = Step Loss Hit Priorities (see 6.41 & 6.42)	3: Additional Hits ☒ ☒ all remaining hits are Step Losses [assets and/or units]

COMBAT RESULTS

a) Follow the Hit Priorities sequence above (per 6.41 & 6.42)
b) Apply step losses and disorder results
c) Determine final results per below; in ALL cases:
- surviving assets are moved to the Used Box
- any units in areas no longer contested return to hidden status

Area Remains Contested – Neither side eliminated; units remain face up

Defender Retreated – Surviving Attacker Unit(s) gain control of the area

Attacker Eliminated – Surviving Defender Unit(s) maintain control of the area

Defender Eliminated by
- Artillery – Exploitation opportunity
- Ground Fire with at least 1 Excess Hit – Exploitation opportunity

Exploitation – Armor Class units must pass a morale check; exploitation cannot happen during an Assault (River/Airborne/Beach)

DISORDERED/UNSUPPLIED

Standard Effects (9.33)
- Cannot initiate combat
- SN modifier when firing and for morale checks
- Can only move 1 area, cannot build field works, cannot be placed in reserve

Additional Effects – Unsupplied (9.34 & 9.4)
- Assets, Special Actions, engineering functions and friendly events cannot be played for such units / areas
- May not recover from disordered status
- Must make morale check during friendly Supply Phase: Failure results in disordered result, a step loss and possible surrender

OOS Morale Checks for Untried Units (15.3)
- Untried units requiring OOS morale checks are eliminated

- Otherwise move the reusable Special Action from Used Box to Available Box (4.1a)
- Allied Player: move one naval support asset from Used Box to Eliminated Box (16.21)
- Move all remaining assets from Used Box into selection cup (4.1b)

Arriving Resources

- Units placed in entry areas (4.1c & 8.27 & 14.24)
- Assets and Events placed into selection cup (4.1d)

First Player Turn

Admin Phase – Both Players

- Both players randomly draw a number of assets/events from selection cup as indicated on the Turn Track (4.2a)
- Allied Player +1 asset/event draw per captured Sicilian Port (16.5)
- Phasing Player first then Non-phasing Player:
  - Perform engineering functions (4.2 & 4.3)
  - Play and resolve events (4.2 & 17.0)
  - Play and resolve air support assets (16.33 & 16.31)
  - Perform staff functions (4.2 & 8.3)
  - Use Special Actions (8.25 & 8.26)

Operational Movement Phase – Phasing Player

Movement Action

- Place units in reserve, move, build field works, or hold position (5.21, 5.22, 5.23 & 5.24) and conduct unit arrival (14.24)

River Assaults & Allied Beach Assaults

- Mark as appropriate (5.35e & 14.27)

Overstacking (involuntary only)

- Correct at end of Phase by retreating units (5.1 & 6.6)

Strategic Movement Phase – Phasing Player

Reserve Move

- Move units marked with a reserve marker per Strategic Movement Rules (5.4 & 14.24c & 14.8)
- Remove reserve marker from units so moved (5.4)

Combat Phase – For each area as required or desired, conducting Airborne Assaults before all other combats

Special Action Decision

- Defender may reinforce or retreat with Special Action (6.21)

Commit Assets

- Attacker assigns assets to this battle (6.22)
- Defender assigns assets to this battle (6.23)

Declare Point

- Both declare point unit (Defender first) (6.24)

Reveal Units

- Both reveal units if a newly contested area (6.24)
- Fading Italian Morale levels affect Italian units (15.3 & 17.21)

Artillery Fire

- Attacking artillery fires (6.25) – Defender applies hits (6.42)
- Defending artillery fires (6.26) – Attacker applies hits (6.41)

Ground Fire

- Ground units and battle assets fire in the following order:
  - Defender fires (6.27) – Attacker applies hits (6.41)
  - Attacker fires (unless attack aborted) (6.28) – Defender applies hits (6.42)
- Both place remaining assets from this combat in Used Box (6.29)

Reaction & Breakthrough Phase – Both Players

Reaction

- Non-phasing Player moves reserves (7.2)

Breakthrough Movement

- Phasing Player moves these units in any desired order:
  - Units in reserve (7.3)
  - Exploitation units, but only into adjacent areas (7.3 & 7.31)
  - Armor Class units, by spending a Special Action for each unit, but only into adjacent areas (7.3 & 7.31 & 8.21)

Breakthrough Combat

- Combats caused by Breakthrough Movement are resolved as in the regular Combat Phase, with a limit of one combat round per area (7.4)

Supply Phase – Both Players

Control of Areas

- Both players verify control of areas (9.2)

Supply

- Players check supply status of all units, place/remove unsupplied markers (9.31 & 9.32), play/resolve air support (16.34 & 16.31)

Disorder & Recovery

- Players remove recovering markers from all units and then flip disordered markers to the recovering side (9.35)

Morale Check – Phasing Player Only

- Phasing Player makes morale checks for his unsupplied units (9.4)

Marker Removal

- Players remove all markers as follows (9.5):
  - All reserve markers from Non-phasing Player units
  - All field works markers from contested areas
  - All road blocks and defended road blocks
  - All river assault markers

Second Player Turn

- Second Player becomes Phasing Player/Attacker
- First Player becomes Non-phasing Player/Defender
- Repeat the Phases outlined for the First Player Turn above

Victory Check Phase

- Determine and mark Current Victory Point Level (19.3)
- Check for Sudden Death Victory (19.4)

Game Turn Advancement

- If no Sudden Death Victory, advance turn marker to the next game turn
